

MS/HS English & Yearbook Teacher

Job highlights

Lake George Charter School is seeking an excellent English teacher for its new middle/high school students. We are searching for an English teacher who has a great background of different genres of literature, abilities to teach grammar rules, and emphasize good penmanship!

Qualifications

- Current valid Colorado teaching license with appropriate endorsement(s)
- Fingerprint/background screening required
- Experience in English instruction in a secondary school setting
- Flexibility and a team-spirit work ethic
- Well-developed interpersonal skills
- Experience in differentiating instruction, and supporting students with learning challenges
- Knowledge of the Colorado Student Standards

Responsibilities

- Willingly assisting the instructional process in its many forms
- Supporting school-wide instructional initiative
- Gathering student data through observation, dialogue, testing tools, etc., and designing strategies to meet student needs
- Supporting student learning through thoughtful planning and preparation and sound classroom management practices Assessing student progress
- Maintaining updated gradebooks, tracking the data, drafting report cards
- Assisting in conducting school-wide benchmark assessments (PSAT, SAT, etc) when needed
- Effectively communicating with school administrators, teachers, student service personnel, parents regarding student performance and plans for improvement
- Assisting students in adopting a behavior conducive to success in the classroom setting
- Participating in faculty meetings and professional learning community meetings
- Assisting in orientation and open houses as needed

Benefits

-

SALARY: See certified salary schedule (on website)

-

Pay: From first year at $36,000 per year to $45,000.00 (BA +60 -MA+10)

-

Dental insurance

-

Health insurance

-

Vision insurance

-

8 hour shift