FIELD DAY

This year's theme for field day is "Adventure Earth." You are welcome to bring a folding chair and watch the various activities.

Remember to provide comfortable clothing, sunscreen and plenty of water for your children.

MR. DAVID and STARBASE

I wanted to represent our little school at the site of the future of space flight and exploration. When I see our students wearing NASA swag, it warms my heart. I'm always sure to let them know that I see them and appreciate them. We're all raising the new generation of explorers and travelers. As of this post, two of our students have been to and seen Starbase. The rockets behind me in the photo below are the prototype starships that will take them further into the universe than anyone has ever been before.
