

Curriculum Review

The curriculum shall be reviewed at least once every five years by the administrator, teachers, parents, accountability committee members and others deemed appropriate by the Charter Board. The reviews shall determine if the established curriculum and educational programs in the charter school are effective and reflect relevant content standards and charter school goals as adopted by the Charter Board.

Regulations shall be developed that outline the courses to be reviewed, the sequence of course review, the specific activities involved in curriculum review, and the areas to be included in the review.

The review shall include consideration of achievement results for all student populations, educational equity, curriculum breadth and depth, and congruence of instructional strategies and assessments with Charter Board-adopted outcome and performance standards.
