

Staff Conduct (And Responsibilities)

All staff members have a responsibility to make themselves familiar and abide by federal and state laws as these affect their work, and the policies and regulations of the charter school.

Rules of Conduct

Each staff member shall observe rules of conduct established in the law which specify that a school employee shall not:

1. Disclose or use confidential information acquired in the course of employment to further substantially personal financial interests.
2. Accept a gift of substantial value or substantial economic benefit tantamount to a gift of substantial value which would tend to improperly influence a reasonable person in the position or which the staff member knows or should know is primarily for the purpose of a reward for action taken in which the staff member exercised discretionary authority.
3. Engage in a substantial financial transaction for private business purposes with a person whom the staff member supervises.
4. Perform any action in which the staff member has discretionary authority which directly and substantially confers an economic benefit on a business or other undertaking in which the staff member has a substantial financial interest or is engaged as a counsel, consultant, representative or agent.

The phrase “economic benefit tantamount to a gift of substantial value” includes a loan at a rate of interest substantially lower than at the prevailing commercial rate and compensation received for private services rendered at a rate substantially exceeding the fair market value.

It is permissible for an employee to receive:

1. An occasional non-pecuniary gift which is insignificant in value.
2. A non-pecuniary award publicly presented by a nonprofit organization in recognition of public service.
3. Payment or reimbursement for actual and necessary expenditures for travel and subsistence for attendance at a convention or other meeting at which he or she is scheduled to participate.
4. Reimbursement for or acceptance of an opportunity to participate in a social function or meeting which is not extraordinary when viewed in light of the position.
5. Items of perishable or nonpermanent value including but not limited to meals, lodging, travel expenses, or tickets to sporting, recreational, educational, or cultural events.
6. Payment for speeches, appearances, or publications reported as honorariums.

All staff members shall be expected to carry out their assigned responsibilities with conscientious concern.

It shall not be considered a breach of conduct for a staff member to:

1. Use school facilities and equipment to communicate or correspond with constituents, family members, or business associates on an occasional basis.
2. Accept or receive a benefit as an indirect consequence of transacting school business.

Essential to the success of ongoing school operations and the instructional program are the following specific responsibilities which, shall be required of all personnel:

1. Faithfulness and promptness in attendance at work.
2. Support and enforcement of policies of the Board and regulations of the school administration in regard to students.
3. Diligence in submitting required reports promptly at the times specified.
4. Care and protection of school property.
5. Concern and attention toward their own and the school system's legal responsibility for the safety and welfare of students including the need to insure that students are supervised at all times.

A staff member may request an advisory opinion from the secretary of state concerning issues relating to conduct that is proscribed by state law.

Child abuse

All charter school employees who have reasonable cause to know or suspect that any child is subjected to abuse or to conditions that might result in abuse or neglect must report such fact in accordance with policy JLF.

The administrator is authorized to conduct an internal investigation or to take any other necessary steps if information is received from a county department of social services or a law enforcement agency that a suspected child abuse perpetrator is a school employee. Such information shall remain confidential except that the administrator shall notify the Colorado Department of Education of the child abuse investigation.

Possession of deadly weapons

The provisions of the policy regarding public possession of deadly weapons on school property or in the school buildings also shall apply to employees of the charter school. However, the restrictions shall not apply to employees who are required to carry or use deadly weapons in order to perform their necessary duties and functions.

Felony/misdemeanor convictions

If, subsequent to beginning employment with the charter school, the charter school learns or has good cause to believe that any staff member has been convicted of any felony or misdemeanor other than a (misdemeanor traffic offenses or infraction) the charter school shall make inquiries to the Department of Education for purposes of screening the employee.

In addition, the charter school shall require the employee to submit a complete set of fingerprints taken by a qualified law enforcement agency. Fingerprints must be submitted within 20 days of receipt of written notification. The fingerprints shall be forwarded to the Colorado Bureau of Investigation (CBI) for the purpose of conducting a state and national fingerprint-based criminal history record check utilizing the records of the CBI and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). Disciplinary action, which could include dismissal from employment, may be taken against licensed personnel if the results of fingerprint processing provide relevant information.

Employees shall not be charged fees for processing fingerprints under these circumstances.

Unlawful behavior involving children

The Charter Board may make an inquiry with the Department of Education concerning whether any current employee of the charter school has been convicted of, pled nolo contendere to, or received a deferred sentence for a felony or misdemeanor crime involving unlawful sexual behavior or unlawful behavior involving children. Disciplinary action, including termination, may be taken if the inquiry discloses information relevant to the employee's fitness for employment.

Personnel addressing health care treatment for behavior issues

Charter school personnel are prohibited under state law from recommending or requiring the use of psychotropic drugs for students. They are also prohibited from testing or requiring testing for a student's behavior without giving notice to the parent/guardian describing the recommended testing and how any test results will be used and obtaining prior written permission from the student or from the student's parent/guardian. See policy JLDAC. Charter school personnel are encouraged to discuss concerns about a student's behavior with the parent/guardian and such discussions may include a suggestion that the parent/guardian speak with an appropriate health care professional regarding any behavior concerns charter school personnel may have.
