Evaluation of Instructional Staff

The Charter Board recognizes that the teaching process is extremely complex and that appraisal of the process is a difficult function. It also recognizes that sound appraisal of teaching performance is critical in achieving the educational goals of the school system.

The Charter Board expects its supervisory and administrative staffs to exert every effort to help and encourage staff members to develop their teaching personalities and instructional abilities to an optimum degree.

In keeping with state law, the performance evaluation system shall serve as a basis for the improvement of instruction, enhance the implementation of curricular programs, and measure professional growth and development and level of performance of certificated personnel. The evaluation and documentation for dismissal for unsatisfactory performance.

The Charter Board shall consult with the administrator, teachers, parents and the advisory charter school personnel performance evaluation council in developing the evaluation system. A process shall be developed to conduct an on-going review of the evaluation system.

The basic requirements of the evaluation system shall be:

1. All full-time and part-time teachers shall be regularly evaluated by the administrator who has an administrative certificate or administrator license and education and training in evaluation skills which will enable them to make fair, professional and credible evaluations of the personnel whom they are responsible for evaluating.
2. Evaluations shall be conducted in a fair and friendly manner and shall be based on written criteria which pertain to good teaching and the staff member's particular position.
3. Standards for satisfactory performance of certificated personnel and criteria which can be used to determine whether performance meets such standards shall be developed. One of the standards for measuring teacher performance shall be directly related to classroom instruction and shall include multiple measures of student performance. The charter school personnel performance evaluation council shall be an active participant in the development of standards of performance.

4. All evaluation standards and criteria shall be given in writing to all certificated personnel and shall be communicated and discussed by the person being evaluated and the evaluator prior to and during the course of the evaluation.
5. The system shall identify the various methods which will be used for information collection during the evaluation process such as direct and informal observation and peer, parent or student input obtained from standardized surveys. All data on which an evaluation judgment is based will be document to the extent possible and available for the teacher's review.
6. The evaluation system shall specify the frequency and duration of the evaluation process which shall be on a regular basis to ensure the collection of a sufficient amount of data from which reliable conclusions and findings may be drawn. Probationary teachers shall receive at least two documented observations and one evaluation that results in a written report every year. Non-probationary teachers shall receive at least one documented observation each year and at least one evaluation that results in a written report every three years.
7. All written evaluation reports shall be specific as to performance strengths and weaknesses, specifically identify when a direct observation was made, identify data sources, and contain a written improvement plan. The written improvement plan shall be specific as to what improvements if any are needed in performance.

The staff member concerned shall have an opportunity to review the document with the supervisor who makes the evaluation, and both shall sign it. The evaluation document shall be reviewed by a supervisor of the evaluator whose signature also shall appear on it.

If the evaluatee disagrees with any of the conclusions or recommendations made in the evaluation report, he or she may attach any written explanation or other relevant documentation.

8. The system shall contain a process to be followed when a teacher's performance is deemed unsatisfactory. In accordance with state law, this process shall provide for a notice of deficiencies, a remediation plan and an opportunity to correct the deficiencies.

The charter school shall conduct all evaluations so as to observe the legal and constitutional rights of certificated personnel. No informality in any evaluation or in the manner of making or recording any evaluation shall invalidate the evaluation. No minor deviation in the evaluation procedures shall invalidate the process or the evaluation report.

Nothing in this policy shall be construed to imply in any manner the establishment of any property rights or expectancy or entitlement to continued employment not explicitly established by statute, Charter Board policy or contract. Neither shall this policy and/or the evaluation system be deemed or construed to establish any conditions prerequisite relative to renewal of contracts, transfer, assignment, dismissal or other employment decisions relating to charter school personnel.

Unless an evaluator acts in bad faith or maliciously with respect to the application of a procedure associated with the evaluation process, any misapplication of a procedure, failure to apply a procedure or adhere to a prescribed timeline shall not be an impediment to or prevent the Charter Board from modifying an employee's contract status or assignment under the terms of the employment contract and state law. The content of the evaluation, the ratings given and any improvement or remediation plan shall not be grievable under the charter school's formal grievance process.

All employment decisions remain within the sole and continuing discretion of the Charter Board, subject only to the conditions and limitations prescribed by Colorado law.
